Conditions Governing Gifts:

- It is understood that all gifts are outright and unconditional unless otherwise noted upon this Deed of Gift or a written rider attached hereto.
- Unless otherwise noted on this Deed of Gift or a written rider attached hereto, the Donor agrees that there are no restrictions on access and use of the materials.
- The Donor grants permission for the Harry A. Sprague Library to de-accession items as appropriate.
- This Deed of Gift represents the entire agreement of the parties with regard to the matters set forth herein, and it may be amended only by written agreement accepted and signed by the Donor (or legal representative) and a designated representative of the Harry A. Sprague Library.
- It is understood that the donated materials may be reprinted in whole or in part in an academic publication, and may be used in whole or in part for exhibit display, electronic reproduction, and distribution via the Internet or by other means, as serves the Harry A. Sprague Library’s educational mission. If the Donor is the owner of the donated material’s copyright, he/she hereby grants to the Harry A. Sprague Library a paid up, perpetual, royalty free, nonexclusive license to use the materials to support its educational mission.
- The Donor on this form has not received any goods or services from the University or the Harry A. Sprague Library in return for this gift.
- Gifts to the University for the use in the Harry A. Sprague Library may be deductible in accordance with provisions of federal income tax laws.
- The staff of the Harry A. Sprague Library is not permitted to furnish appraisals.
- Donor agrees that Donor’s sole remedy for breach of this Deed of Gift shall be return of the donated items. Donor hereby agrees to release, indemnify, and hold harmless the Harry A. Sprague Library, Montclair State University and their agents, employees and trustees from any and all claims for damages or other relief that may arise from an alleged breach of this Deed of Gift or from the use of the donated materials items.

Access to the Collection:
When a Donor transfers materials to the University, the Harry A. Sprague Library Archives and Special Collections organizes and preserves the donation and makes it available to researchers. The following is a list of services the Harry A. Sprague Library Archives and Special Collections will provide regarding donations.

- The donation will be organized and, if appropriate, a bibliographic record and/or finding aid will be created to describe the content and the arrangement.
- The donation will be available to researchers after it is organized, physically stabilized, and prepared for use.
- The Harry A. Sprague Library Archives and Special Collections will provide reference services for the donation and, if appropriate, will have the materials listed in national and international bibliographic sources.
